

WEBINAR SERIES

Preparing Students for Social-Emotional Skill Development

Join Collaborative Classroom and Learning Forward Virginia as we examine how the five core social-emotional competencies enable students to develop the skills they need to succeed in school and life.

QUESTIONS?

Please contact Maria Arnett at marnett@collaborativeclassroom.org or Elizabeth English at eenglish@collaborativeclassroom.org.

These webinars are free, but you must register to attend. Everyone who registers will receive the webinar recordings.

Sponsored by Collaborative Classroom and Learning Forward Virginia

SESSION 1: Self-awareness & Self-management

September 26, 2018

4:00–5:00 PM Eastern Time

Register at bit.ly/webinarSEL1

We'll examine how the ability to recognize and describe one's emotions and interests impact a student's academic choices. We'll also discuss how self-management skills enable students to regulate their emotions and behaviors to support academic learning.

SESSION 2: Social Awareness & Relationship Skills

October 17, 2018

4:00–5:00 PM Eastern Time

Register at bit.ly/webinarSEL2

We'll examine how the ability to take the perspective of and empathize with others enables us to better appreciate our differences, allowing us to create meaningful relationships and to collaborate and learn with others.

SESSION 3: Responsible Decision-making

November 14, 2018

4:00–5:00 PM Eastern Time

Register at bit.ly/webinarSEL3

We'll examine how students learn to identify social and academic challenges and develop solutions.